more expensive solution. He also said that the town must soon consider an addition to Old Hammondtown.

The Junior High School will cost 2.4 million and will house 600 students. It will be constructed on a portion of 113 acres available at Old Rochester on a location yet to be determined by the Building Committee. The vote on the changes to the Old Rochester Regional agreement tied into the following question on the building of the school. Unofficially, there were 12 votes against the Regional amendment and 14 votes against the building of the Junior High School. The vote was by majority show of hands.

The Town Meeting also approved the forming of a committee to be known as the District Planning Committee for a Regional Vocational School. Mrs. Blanche Perry, member of the Mattapoissett School Committee, spoke in favor of the formation of this group to study the possibility of a

TOWN CANDIDATES

Mattapoisett's chairman of the Board of Selectmen, David N. Haley, running for reelection, will be opposed by Llewellyn V. Roberts in the annual town election to be held March 2nd. Mr. Haley is chief engineer of Revere Copper & Brass. Mr. Roberts, English teacher at Old Rochester Regional High School, is making his initial bid for public office.

Paul Alves, Sandra Perkins and Richard Seaman are contestants for the School Committee seat now filled by Dr. David Goodenough who is not standing for reelection.

Dr. Albert York, Board of Health member, will be opposed by Dr. Harold W. Woodcock.

Those candidates unopposed are: Lois Ennis, Town Clerk; Allen Sherman, treasurer and tax collector; John D. Gibbons, asses-Denham, tree warden; Arthur W. McLean, planning board; June W. Mendell, Housing Authority member; Joseph R. Nunes, her-ring inspector.

Last on the ballot will be a question on the establishment of a Board of Public Works for the town. The General Court of Massachusetts passed the legislation in 1969 authorizing the establishing of this board which would exercise authority in all town departments. The question will be decided by majority vote.

THE INTERBANK CARD

Now it is February, "Heart Month". Alfred E. Portway, Eastern Sector chairman for Dartmouth, Acushnet, New Bedford, Fairhaven, Mattapoissett and Marion, has announced his local chairmen. Mrs. Robert H. Humphrey will serve as chairman for Mattapoissett's drive, assisted by Mrs. John G. Gannon, Heart Sunday chairman; Everett Southard, treasurer; John L. Layport, businesses; Robert H. Humphrey, special gifts; and Mrs. Alicia Crabbe, publicity.

Although your volunteer may call on you any time during the month, Sunday, February 22nd, will culminate the Heart Fund Drive. Remember that much remains to be done; many more dollars are needed to sustain the fight against heart disease, and with your help progress will be assured. Give from your heart.

4th DISTRICT COURTHOUSE

SITE TO BE VIEWED

Mattapoissett Selectmen have received an invitation from Mr. H. C. Cleaveland, chairman of the Wareham Board of Selectmen, to meet Saturday, February 7th, at 9:45 A.M. to view the site of the proposed 4th District Courthouse. The locations are approximately 1/4 mile east of the junction of Routes 25 and 28, Middleboro and at Routes 58 and 25 in the town of Wareham, where they will view the first location proposed. From there, they will proceed to the site in the town of Wareham.

MATTAPOISETT FELLOWSHIP
SCHEDULES ROCHESTER PILGRIMAGE

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church has planned a Midwinter Celebration of Worship and Friendship to share with their neighbors at the East Rochester Congregational Church, County Road, Rochester, on Sunday, February 8th.

Officers of the Pilgrim Fellowship: Lisa Saether, Mark Harris, Lynn Stephen and Jeffrey Dunn will conduct the regular morning worship service at 11:00 A.M. Special music for this service will be duet selections for flute and organ, provided by Lisa and Jeff.

Immediately after the worship service, the Fellowship will host a "Sunshine Social" in the church vestry. Coffee, fruit, punch, sandwiches and sweets will be served by members of the Fellowship.

This meaningful program was inspired by the spirit of goodwill, love and brotherliness; it is anticipated that attendance will be high, despite the dregs of Flu bug and February weather. Families of Fellowship members are cordially invited to join this special excursion.

Adult advisers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dunn, remind Fellowship members that cars should plan to leave the Parish Hall parking lot before 10:15 the morning of February 8th for the trip to East Rochester.

As discussed at the last meeting, all club members are asked to bring extra sandwiches, and/or such portable sweets as brownies, cupcakes, fudge and fruit squares for the post worship service social. Beverages will be provided by the Fellowship Executive Board.

During its 16-year history, more than seven million young women have participated in the program and scholarship awards, with this year's grants, will total over $1,700,000. A record 646,041 senior girls in 15,040 of the country's high schools were enrolled. college scholarships totaling $110,000.

From school winners in the state, a State Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected within the next few weeks. The state winner will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship and the runner-up a $400 educational grant. In addition, the school of the state Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a complete set of Encyclopaedia Britannica from Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.

This spring, the 51 Homemakers of Tomorrow representing every state and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join for an expense-paid educational tour of Washington, D.C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia. Climax of the tour will be announcement

HOME FOR EXCHANGE STUDENT

The Homes Committee of the ORR Chapter of the American Field Service is looking for a qualified home for a foreign student for the 1970-71 school year. The AFS student, who attends ORR High School, lives as a member of the family, sharing equally in the pleasures and duties of the home. The parents have the same authority over the student as they have over their own children, and they also have the same responsibility for giving him care and affection.

The aim of the program is to promote better understanding amongst the youth of the world. If your family is interested in applying for this experience in sharing please

CUB SCOUTS DRESS AS KNIGHTS

King Arthur and his knights of yore were the center of attraction as Mattapoisett Cub Scout Pack 53 held its monthly pack meeting at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church parish hall.

The program was directed by King Arthur (Kjeld Jensen) and included appearances by the royal magician (H. C. Broadwater), princesses, pages and scores of knights.

Cub Scouts from each of the six dens were attired as knights and took part in a number of different games and activities.
The page, Valerie Putman, read the Knight's Code.

Dens 2 and 6 took part in a stick twist game. Dens 4 and 5 participated in spearing the ring. Den 3 became embroiled in a ball and chain fight and Den 1 tried to keep its balance while teeterboard jousting.

King Arthur, the magician and two brave fathers also tried their hands (and feet) at teeterboard jousting.

During the program, Robert Smith received his bobcat pin. Bear badges with one gold and one silver arrow and a service star went to Peter Jensen, Alfred Peccini and James Broadwater. John Langlois received a bear badge with one gold arrow and three silver arrows and a service star.

Den mothers were thanked for the work they put into making the program a success.

It was announced that the Blue and Gold banquet will have a space theme this year and will be held in April at the Congregational Church hall. The pinewood derby will be at 1:30 P.M. March 1st at Center School.

Cub Scouts are reminded that February 8th is Scout Sunday. Cub Scouts are invited to church service in uniform as a group.

small groups of dedicated Drama Club members, practicing dialogue, planning scenery, designing publicity posters, discussing props and costumes.

In the meantime, the stage itself is a mob scene of singers and dancers, devotedly following the magical inspiration of their most gifted director, Nancy Lee Gaucher. Leaden-footed chorus boys are amazingly transformed into "trippers of the light fantastic," expertly twirling their partners about the stage. 'Tis a revelation to observe!

However, at O.R.R. "George M!" really does exist. The title character around whom all this many-people-activity ebulliently ebbs is alive and well, and dwelling within the body of O.R.R. senior student, Stephen Searle. Stephen is a newcomer to the area scene, having moved with his family from Waltham, Mass. to Ned's Point, Mattapoisett just last summer.

Many famous actors are nostalgically recalled in the recreation of the George M. Cohan role. Probably the best remembered is Jimmy Cagney, who astonished moviegoers with his surprising singing and dancing talents in the mid-forties' most popular Hollywood film, "I'm A Yankee Doodle Dandy". When "George M!" opened on Broadway, Joel Grey won rave reviews from the critics for his exciting interpretation of the title role. At the present time, Darryl Hickman is featured in a national tour of the show, which just completed a four-week engagement at the Colonial Theater in Boston.

Jimmy, Joel, Darryl are all possibly marvelous reincarnations of the fabulous George M. Cohan, but we are anticipating that our Steve will light another set of candles in the brightly illuminated George M. archives. Steve Searle is a wonderfully winsome and charming young man. Just a year ago, at Waltham High School, Steve was featured in a school production of "The Music Man". Steve, a former piano student, is thoroughly delighted with his new school, and has been heard to remark that he wishes he could have been a member of the O.R.R. student body throughout his high school years. Athletically as well as dramatically inclined, Steve is a devoted member
